

Pip, Squeak and Wilfred

On 28 June 1914, Archduke Ferdinand was assassinated in Sarajevo
... and the world went to war.

On 28 June 2014 we bring you:

Pip, Squeak and Wilfred - the record legacy of 1914-1918

at the Marlborough School, Woodstock

For just £10/person we have five good talks by five good speakers as well as displays to keep you busy through the breaks.

The day is being jointly sponsored by Oxfordshire FHS and the Federation of Family History Societies.

We'll provide you with tea and coffee during the day, but we've kept the cost to a minimum by asking you to bring your own lunch.

Please note that there are no options to buy lunch close to the venue.
